MEMPHIS APPEAL.

THE CONVICTED FENIANS.

By the Atlantic Telegraph.]

THE MANCHESTER RIOTERS—EFFORTS IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS TO SAVE THEIR LIVES.

In the House of Commons last night an effort was made to save the lives of the Manchester rioters. John Francis Maguire, the member for the city of Cork, moved that the House interfere for a stay in the execution of the sentence of the Fenian convicts at Manchester and that meanwhile the points of law upon which he based his resolution be referred to the twelve highest judicial authorities of the realm. The motion gave rise to a long and earnest discussion. Mr. Maguire was supported by Henry Fawcett, the member for Brighton, and Sir George Bowyer. But Messrs. Hardy, Gladstone and Kinglake made strong speeches against the motion, and it was finally withdrawn by its author, the opinion of the House being manifestly against any further consideration of the subject.

PETITION TO THE QUEEN IN BEHALF OF THE FENIANS—THE QUEEN DECLINES TO GRANT IT.

Evening.—To-day, the Committee appointed by the meeting of last evening presented to the Queen at Windsor a petition for the postponement of the executions at Manchester. Her Majesty, in a most direct manner, declined to grant the prayer of the petitioners.

A DEMONSTRATION IN LONDON AGAINST THE EXECUTION.

An orderly demonstration against the execution of the Fenians took place here last night. A large number of persons assembled at one of the public halls, and passed resolutions urging the Government to grant a stay of proceedings. A committee was appointed to draw up and present a petition for mercy to the Queen.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN MANCHESTER.

MANCHESTER, November 22.—The city has the appearance of being in a state of seige. Most extraordinary precautions are taken by the Government. Barricades have been erected in the streets for the protection of the troops. Regular infantry are stationed at different points in the city, and troops of cavalry, which have lately arrived here, are patroling the streets. Two or three thousand special policemen, who have been sworn in by the municipal authorities, are distributed among the police stations, where they are receiving their arms. Clergymen have been summoned to the jail, and have been closeted with the condemned prisoners during the greater part of the day. Everything indicates, beyond a doubt, that the Government is determined not to pardon or commute the sentences of the unfortunate men, and intends to make of their execution an imposing demonstration of firmness and rigor, in order to put a stop to Fenian violence and outrage.

A MEETING IN MANCHESTER—RESOLUTIONS AGAINST THE EXECUTION.

Shore, one of the condemned Fenians, has been granted a respite. A public meeting was held here yesterday by persons opposed to the execution of the Fenians, and resolutions to that effect were passed.

A DEMONSTRATION IN BIRMINGHAM.

BIRMINGHAM, November 22.—A large meeting was held here yesterday to protest against the hanging of the Manchester Fenians. Some disorder occurred, and riotous demonstrations were made at the conclusion of the meeting.

A BITTER ANTI-FENIAN FEELING—ANTICIPATION OF RIOTS.

Evening.—The tumultuous proceeding at the meeting in favor of the Manchester rioters last night produced great excitement, and the agitation is increasing to-day. A bitter anti-Fenian feeling prevails among the larger portion of the population, and serious riots are feared.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE FUNERALS OF THE CONDEMNED FENIANS.

Preparations are being made in this city to observe in a peculiar manner the obsequies of the Fenians who are to suffer the death penalty to-morrow. On Sunday a funeral procession, with hearses and all the usual mourning devices, will be organized and march to Hyde Park, where a solemn meeting will be held.

The General Council of the Lutheran Church.

FORT WAYNE, IND., November 22. The General Council of the Lutheran Church of North America, after a friendly discussion of two days, adopted the proposed Constitution with great unanimity. There are now fully organized twelve synods, nearly 1,000 congregations, and over 130,000 communicants represented. The following are the officers: The Rev. G. Bassler, President; H. N. Poth, English, Recording Secretary; Prof. G. Fritchul, (German,) Recording Secretary; the Rev. H. Adelberg, (German,) Corresponding Secretary; Dr. H. H. Muhlenberg, Treasurer. Much interest is felt by the Lutheran Church in America and Europe in the proceedings of this General Council of Synods. The important questions in regard to doctrine and discipline, and in reference to education and missions will be considered by the Council. Over 100 delegates and visitors are present.

THE IMPEACHMENT MATTER.

WASHINGTON, November 25.—The majority of the Impeachment Committee, in their report recommending impeachment, lay great stress upon the alleged usurpation by the President of the pardoning and veto powers; also, the authority to make removals and appointments, and particularly refer to what is termed flagrant violations of the constitutional powers of the Executive by organizing governments in the Southern States at the end of the war without asking the advice of Congress, as they assert, for personal purposes. They refer to the pardoning of 1,953 persons in West Virginia who were deserters from the army during the war, which they state was in behalf of private and interested parties, and in order that they may vote in accordance with the President's opinions. Their resolution is causing great depletion of the Treasury. The tenor of the Executive offences throughout the entire report, consists in alleged usurpations of the powers above mentioned. The majority assert, also, that by various official speeches, public declarations, the President has sought to obstruct the laws of Congress for the pacification of the States, with particular reference to the Constitutional amendment approved by Congress. This report is very lengthy, and is signed by Boutwell, Williams, Churchill, Thomas and Lawrence.

A report was also submitted by Wilson and Woodbridge, dissenting from the views of the majority, and asserting that there was no evidence presented which demanded the impeachment of the President, but they condemned his political views, and were willing to censure him.

The minority report by Marshall and Eldridge, strongly defended the President from abuse by his political enemies, and assert that his only faults consist in not holding the political views of the party which elected him, in regard to the subjugation of the people of the South. The report is extremely caustic, and abuses harshly some of the witnesses who testified before the Committee. Baker is accused of perjury, and they conclude with: "The President will be held in respect by his countrymen when his calumniators are pilloried in undying scorn and indignation of the American people. The points made in the summing up of the majority report against the President are not borne out by the testimony. As to the President's having usurped the powers of Congress in organizing governments in the Southern States. It will be found in Gen. Grant's testimony that the programme which was followed by Mr. Johnson had been laid down by Mr. Lincoln. It also appears in Gen. Grant's testimony that he was present by invitation at the Cabinet councils, in which the reorganization of the Southern States was discussed, and while he assented to the plan followed by the Administration, he did not offer any suggestion of his own, but was a silent listener. The only active part he took was in restraining the President's ardor to have prominent rebels like Lee brought to condign punishment. As to the pardon of prominent rebels, it appears that many of the most prominent of them were pardoned on the recommendation of Grant, Speed, Stanton, etc. As to the pardoning of some hundreds of deserters from a West Virginia regiment, which the report alleges was done in order that they might vote for a Democratic member of Congress, it appears from the evidence that they were only technically deserters—that they were not pardoned until some weeks after the election, and that the President merely indorsed the application in the usual form—referring it to the Secretary of War, who himself granted it. The committee inquired into the possession by the President of certain Tennessee bonds, on the supposition that his possession of them might have some connection with his release of the property of certain Southern railroad companies; but it appeared that Mr. Johnson has been possessor of those bonds for the last twelve years.

In reference to the trial of Jefferson Davis, Attorney General Speed and the counsel for the Government shoulder all the responsibility of not trying him, the avewed cause being that Chief Justice Chase would not preside, and that Attorney-General Speed would not consent under any circumstances to have the trial conducted before Judge Underwood.

There was an attempt on the part of Lafayette C. Baker to get up a story about an imaginary letter from Mr. Johnson, as Military Governor, to Jefferson Davis, offering to turn over the State of Tennessee to him, but the committee could have had no trouble in deciding what degree of credit was to be given to it; the tale fell still born. There is no allegation against the President of his having personally given grounds of offense. Ashley, of Ohio, who presented the articles of impeachment, acknowledges that he has given to the committee all the valid evidence in his possession."

Colored Good Templars.

There were present on Thursday evening, at the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars, several colored men, clothed in the regalia of the Order. Their presence attracted a great deal of attention and remark. These "colored brothers" were representatives from "Purity" Lodge of the Order, recently organized by Brig. Gen. C. H. Howard and others, and the charter of which was rescinded by the Grand Council, for the reason that it was announced that they intended to admit colored persons as members. The action of the Grand Council was subsequently revoked by the Grand Lodge, and the charter returned, and the Lodge admitted to the Grand Lodge. The organization has been in existence for some months, but little was known of it until Thursday evening.

The appearance of the colored men in the Grand Lodge on Thursday evening created a great deal of comment, and it is probable that quite an amount of trouble to the Order will be occasioned by reason of colored people being admitted to membership. It was announced on Thursday evening that large numbers of the members will resign in consequence.—Nat. Intelligencer, Nov. 22d.

Negro Barbarism—Experience of the West Indies.

From the N. Y. Herald.]

There is now scarcely a telegram that reaches us from the West Indies that does not tell of horrible atrocities and servile outbreaks by the black sons of Africa—outbreaks dignified by the name of revolutions. Yesterday we announced a new rebellion in Jamaica, and the fact that in one parish alone four hundred negroes were ready for revolt. The island is in panic, the white population seriously menaced, trade and commerce stagnant, and civilization buried still deeper under a load of barbarism. Hayti presents the same sad and revolting picture of a movement in the direction of barbarism. On the 12th of October the scene in the Legislative chambers was very violent. Even the negro President, Salnave, "became so audacious as to incite a rabble of women and boys to attack the House of Assembly. This they did amid loud vivas for Salnave, and cries of 'Down with the Assembly!' hurling, at the same time, bricks, bottles, sticks, etc. The dwellings of many were vigorously stoned. The American Consul was fired at, but escaped unhurt."

These are the pictures of negro rule, of negro independence, of negro suffrage. These are the pictures of a country governed by the blood of Africa. In Jamaica more than a generation has passed since the negroes were thrown to the front and forced to make an effort to maintain themselves at the level of the white man. How well they have succeeded let the present troubles demonstrate. They have not only been going on from bad to worse, but civilization itself has been dying out even where it existed among the whites. The negro, instead of rising to the level of the white population, have gradually lowered the whites to the basest standard of morality and intelligence, until we have the picture of a magnificent West India island sinking to the fearful barbarism of Central Africa. If Jamaica presents this in one light, Hayti and St. Domingo present it in still bolder relief. Here we have the full focus of negro efforts at civilization. First a war against the whites, then a war between blacks and mulattoes, then what may be denominated a kaleidoscopic war, in which color has warred against color in all the endless changes, forming magnificent revolutionary combinations, very beautiful to look at at a distance, but death to participate in.

In drawing the picture of Hayti, St. Domingo and Jamaica we are only photographing upon the American mind in advance the picture that Congress is trying to impress upon the United States by false and barbaric legislation. Radical rule as exposed to-day means down with the white man! up with the negro! Down with intelligence! up with ignorance! Down with civilization! up with barbarism! And they ring all the changes on the skull of the negro which, were it not as tough as a drumhead, would burst under the blows. Never has such miserable legislation fallen to the lot of any nation. Never in the most degraded days of Roman history did they descend to forcing barbarism to the surface that it might swamp intelligence. Never did a nation try to throttle itself by voluntarily placing the black hand of Africa at its throat. Never did statesmen before descend to the dregs of humanity to bathe their hands in its worst filth that they might besmear with it such a civilization as we have reached in 1867. But they are not statesmen; they are mad demagogues who, to prolong political power, would willingly plunge the nation into fifty years of civil strife. They must be overturned before they effect our national ruin. The people, the common sense of the country, must stand between them and the ruin towards which they drive. It is not yet too late; but four years more of such legislation would ruin any country, though it had ten times the backbone of the United States.

FARM FOR SALE.

The Best Bargain Offered

S. N. ELLIOTT offers for sale this Farm of 920 Acres, at Elliott's Station, on the Mississippi Central Railroad, eight miles south of Grenada. 300 more acres can be added if desired.

The land lies on both sides of the railroad, up to Elliott's Station, and affords eligible site for Mercantile and Manufacturing establishments. It has an abundance of fine timber, needed by the railroad. More than enough to pay the price of the whole tract. It is all level, and susceptible of cultivation to suit any purposes. Has 550 acres cleared and under good fence. Has a comfortable family residence with good out-houses, barns and stables—large, and the best gin, screw and cotton press—all new, in the same county. The improvements cost within the last three years $60,000. Mr. Elliott desires to sell before the first of January next, and as a strong inducement he offers his land at ten dollars per acre, in United States Currency, for which he refused thirty dollars per acre in 1861. Time will be given, if desired, upon half the price upon fair terms. Sale must be made soon or not at all. Title of the whole tract is perfect. Refer to

PRINCIPLES GOVERNING THE CONDUCT OF THE APPEAL.

A GOVERNMENT of white men for white men; and no political miscegenation.

LOYALTY to the Union of the STATES: FIDELITY to the Constitution in its true extent and meaning: Obedience to and maintenance of all law, State and National, constitutionally enacted.

RESISTANCE to Tyranny, Usurpation and Oppression, of one man or many; and to all encroachments upon the rights of freemen or of States, or upon the just and Constitutional prerogatives of any Department of the State or National Governments.

NO ESTABLISHMENTS of Military despotism, no enthroning of martial law, no suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus, no slaying of citizens by Military Commission, no interference with the Courts, no lettres de cachet, in time of peace.

STRICT SUBORDINATION of the Military to the Civil Power.

NO STANDING ARMIES of States in time of peace.

RESTORATION of disfranchised citizens to all rights and privileges of which they have been disseized; no prosecutions or disqualifications for political opinions; for the PAST, oblivion of offences; for the PRESENT and FUTURE, UNION, PEACE, LAW and ORDER.

PERPETUAL ASSURANCE to all freemen of the African race, of all the CIVIL rights of freemen.

NO REPUDIATION, by State or Nation, of any honest and lawful debt.

NO REVIVAL of old party differences; but a Union of all Conservative men, of all former parties, who revere the Constitution, to restore the old land-marks of the Government.

NO LEGISLATION to plunder one portion of the country for the profit of another portion.

WHATEVER is JUST; whatever is RIGHT; whatever is of GOOD REPUTE, and worthy of the descendants of English freemen

THE COTTON TAX.

All the indications favor the idea that the iniquitous cotton tax will be repealed by Congress, not in deference to the interest of the South, but because it is paralyzing the business of the country and will entirely destroy cotton culture. Nothing is more certain than these results, and hence the Radical leaders are beginning to discover that they must suffer in their party unless they shall speedily abolish the tax which is lying so heavily upon the interests of the country. We are glad to chronicle this conviction, whatever may be the motive leading to the action now on the eve of accomplishment.

We think we are not overestimating the result of such an act when we state that it will be in the pocket of our city at least a million and a half of dollars and to the benefit of surrounding planters a million and a half in addition, which in the aggregate will be about $3,000,000. The advantage to the South will be at least $23,000,000. This, will be pretty good work, if the Radical majority do not back down from their generous intentions.

RADICAL DEFIANCE OF THE POPULAR WILL.

Grant, the chosen leader of Radicalism, told the President, not many months ago that the popular will was, that Sheridan should not be removed, and urged him to obey it, saying that "In a Republic the will of the People is the law of the land."

But his party now announces that it will not obey the popular will, as distinctly expressed in their condemnation of the devilment of negro-suffrage, but that the work of reconstruction shall notwithstanding go on; and it exultingly proclaims that nothing which the people can do at the polls can change the complexion of Congress in time to prevent it. Of this, the National Intelligencer says:

> We accept the issue thus presented to us, even in the form and spirit of defiance. We call for the report of all the unconstitutional legislation by which negro governments have been established, and demand that the great State criminals who have trampled under foot the Federal system to accomplish such ends shall be punished. Wade fell under the weight of negro suffrage. Can Holt, Conover, Stevens and Sumner, bear the burdens of negro supremacy? Ohio rejects suffrage. Can Massachusetts carry ten negro governments? This is the issue which the Chronicle and the Tribune, and all the howling Radicals, have presented to the American people.
>
> The World rates negroes and white men in Virginia and other States. That paper should reflect that the reconstruction scheme was adopted with a single purpose, to secure supremacy to the former. It is dominion of the negroes over the whites that has been accomplished. The former have been invested with power, and the latter made subjects and victims. The one is armed, the other outlawed and disarmed. The negro is everything, the white man is nothing. The World cannot state the issue otherwise. The parties are not rated at all. One side is beaten down, and the other put up. The whites are excluded from the political system, and we are all more or less responsible for the act, for we have given a sort of assent to it, knowing exactly how it would turn out. The Tribune and Chronicle now avow it, and take shelter under the power thus created, defying the people of the North and South combined to set it aside. Nevertheless, it will be set aside, and with it will go negro suffrage, and, we greatly fear, through the reactive forces it will bring into being prostrate the poor race of barbarians who have been made the tools and victims of the most wicked combinations of party hacks that ever got authority in a civilized State. We give this timely advice to the friends of humanity and good government.

"MAKING TREASON HONORABLE."

It is a hard task that the Radicals have assumed to force men into repressing their natural impulse to honor, heroism and manliness. The following doleful plaint from "minor topics," in the New York Times illustrates the difficulties that beset the path of the Pharisees who propose to "make treason odious"—such treason as the South, in imitation of George Washington and compeers illuminated with some of the brightest deeds in history, either ancient or modern:

> It is one thing to take the most magnanimous views in reference to the policy to be pursued toward the Southern people, and another to bring forward rebel leaders like Mosby and Beauregard for ovations in New York. If Mosby is "introduced" to the Gold Board or other public place, it is that he may receive plaudits for his conduct as a rebel. It is only his rebel doings that has brought him to notice, or can give him any claim upon popular attention. In no other way whatever, and on no other account, is he deserving of remark. Now, we do not see that it is tolerable that he should be brought forward here and honored for this reason. It looks altogether too much like making treason honorable, and this is what the loyal people of New York are not prepared for. If these obnoxious rebel leaders have not sense enough to keep from putting themselves up as objects of applause, they should be restrained by their friends.

A RADICAL SENATOR.

Senator Drake, of Missouri, a very prominent Radical, has fired the first gun at Washington on the nigger question, in the shape of a five column letter, in reply to a pamphlet by Reverdy Johnson, on the subject of reconstruction. As this man Drake is a fair specimen of a Southern Radical "freedom shrieker" and reconstructed border ruffian, it may not be uninteresting to learn something about him from one who knew him when Radicalism was not so popular as at the present time. "Mack," of the Cincinnati Commercial, thus speaks of the letter, and photographs the man:

> The sum and substance of Mr. Drake's effervescence is, that Congress has a right to reconstruct Southern State Governments as it pleases, and that the loyal negro is the political superior of the rebel white. I recollect the time when the loyal negro found a very poor friend in the person of Mr. Drake. During the winter of 1858-9 I was in Jefferson City, Missouri, as a newspaper correspondent. Mr. Drake was a member of the Legislature, and was as far out on the extreme end of the pro-slavery Democratic line then, as he is on the Radical Republican line. Then, as now, his style was artesian, and his orations sempiternal. He was a sort of pious and aristocratic border ruffian, and for some remarks on his conduct and course of action during that session, it was twice inhumanly proposed to deny me the privilege of the floor. On one occasion he supported and voted for a proposition to sell into slavery every free negro, and his and her descendants, who had come into the State since 1857, or should thereafter come into it. Those who are curious on this subject will find Mr. Drake's vote recorded on it in the journal of the House of Representatives of Missouri, for the session of 1858-9, which can be found in any well regulated public library.
> Not content with warning free negroes against suffering the State in the future, this measure enacted that every one of that unfortunate class already there should be caught by the sheriff and put up at public auction. What a wonderful change of heart, to transform the kidnapper of 1859 into the philanthropist of 1867. During the same winter the railroad system of Missouri was an important topic of legislation, and Mr. Drake's chief point was to encourage the construction of some line that would relieve the chivalry of Missouri, of whom he was one, from the disagreeable necessity of patronizing Yankee roads in traveling to the capital of the nation. The times change, and men change with the times. The war made an intensely loyal man out of Mr. Drake. If it had shortened his wind a little, it would have effected a still more beneficial change in him.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

A Sentence by Court-Martial Commuted.

WASHINGTON, November 22.—Before a military tribunal convened at Columbia, S. C., by order of Gen. Canby, John McGinnis, a citizen, was arraigned on the charge of violating so much of General Orders No. 10 as prohibits the carrying of deadly weapons. It appears from the testimony that he snapped a navy revolver at one soldier and threatened to shoot another. He was found guilty. To conform the sentence in a measure to the spirit of the State law, it was commuted to stand as follows: "To be confined at hard labor for the period of six months and to pay a fine of $500, which fine, if unpaid, will be expatiated by further imprisonment at the rate of $25 per month." Fort Macon is the place designated for his confinement.

If that sort of law were administered in Memphis, there would be less discharging of fire-arms after night, to the terror of good citizens, and fewer negroes strutting about armed. It is positively asserted that every negro who belongs to the Loyal League is required by the by-laws to bring a weapon with him to every meeting; and that if he fails to do so, he is fined fifty cents. And it is further alleged, that the Judge of the Criminal Court of Memphis is the President of one of these negro cabals or Lodges. This is stated to us so positively that we feel at liberty to repeat it: and when we positively know it to be so, we shall have a word or two say as to the propriety and decency of a judge sworn to enforce the criminal laws, holding such a position; as also, perhaps, as to how far these assemblages are consistent with the peace and good order of the community.

LEGISLATIVE.

SENATE.

A memorial from manufacturers and capitalists of Connecticut and Minnesota, proposing to enter largely into manufacturing in this State, provided the Legislature will exempt them from taxation for five years, was read and referred to the Committee on Manufactures and Internal Improvements.

The bill to repeal all laws disqualifying persons from holding office or sitting on juries, was made the special order for the 3d of December.

House Joint Resolution.—Raising a joint committee to report on the expediency of changing the time for holding the Congressional elections. Indefinitely postponed.

Resolution asking Congress to give pensions to the soldiers of the war of 1812. Concurred in.

Resolution raising a joint committee to inquire into all matters touching the finances of the State. Concurred in. Messrs. Nelson and Wilson appointed by the Speaker as the committee on the part of the Senate.

Resolution calling for a report from the Adjutant General's office. Concurred in.

The Governor's message on the removal of J. S. Hull, the warden of the penitentiary, with the report of the joint committee, was referred to a special joint committee of the Senate and House.

The joint committee to whom this question had been referred reported in favor of the expulsion of Mr. Hull, but the report was not concurred in, and the whole question was referred, as reported above, to a new committee.

Senate joint resolution, introduced by Senator Nelson, to adjourn the General Assembly on the 23d of December, to meet again on November 9th, 1868, was lost.

Adjourned to 9 a.m. to-morrow.

HOUSE.

Petitions.—Mr. Moore presented a petition from the members of the bar of Brownsville, praying for the passage of a bill now before the House, for removing the sitting of the Supreme Court from Jackson to Brownsville. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Bossom presented a memorial with regard to the Universities of Nashville and East Tennessee. Referred to the Committe on Finance and Ways and Means.

The following new bills were introduced:

By Mr. Bossom—A bill for the further endowment of Nashville and East Tennessee Universities. Referred to the Commitie on Finance.

By Mr. Woodcock—A resolution instructing the Committee on penitentiary to investigate the affairs of that institution, and ascertain whether any of its officers have been in any way connected as partners in any contracts for furnishing supplies to said prison. Passed.

By Mr. Thornberg, of Granger—A bill to abolish the office of Supervisor of Banks. Referred to the Committee on Banks.

By Mr. Hamilton—A bill to change the revenue laws on imports. It provides that the tax on imports shall be reduced from one per cent. to one half of one per cent. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

By Mr. Moore—A bill regulating the fees of Clerks of Courts. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

By Mr. Bowles—A bill to prevent disfranchised rebels from practicing law in any of the courts. It provides that all persons who practice law in any of the courts of the State shall take and subscribe to the oath as laid down in section 3 of the Franchise law. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Resolution lying over.—House joint resolution No. 8, instructing members of Congress from Tennessee to vote for the impeachment of President Andrew Johnson. Passed, ayes 50, nays 20, and transmitted to the Senate.

Senate Bill No. 39.—Making appropriations to various railroads of the State, was taken up. This bill is known as the "Omnibus Railroad Bill," and makes the following appropriations: To the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad Company, $550,000; to the Knoxville and Kentucky Railroad Company $800,000: to the Cincinnati, Cumberland Gap and Charleston Railroad Company, $200,000; to the Winchester and Alabama Railroad Company, $300,000; to the Nashville and Decatur Railroad Company, $350,000; to the Southwestern Railroad Company, $300,000; to the Memphis and Charleston Railroad Company, $300,000; to the Miss. Central Railroad Company, $200,000; to the Mississippi and Tennessee Railroad Company, $100,000; to the Knoxville and Charleston Railroad Company, $150,000; to the Tennessee and Pacific Railroad Company, $5000 per mile; to the East Tennessee and Western North Carolina Railroad Company, $100,000; to the Edgefield and Kentucky Railroad Company, $300,000; to the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad Company, $50,000—making an aggregate of $3,700,000, exclusive of the appropriation to the Tennessee and Pacific Railroad Company of $5000 per mile. The bill passed the first reading and was referred to the Committee on Incorporations, and ordered to be printed.

Senate Bill No. 24.—To encourage immigration to Tennessee. The bill creates a Board of immigration, consisting of the Governor, Secretary of State and three other members to be appointed by the Governor, and defines the powers and duties of said board. Passed second reading.

Senate Bill No. 1.—Providing that in trials of action on ejectments, title bonds, may be read in evidence. Passed second reading.

Senate Bill No. 39.—To improve the facilities of voting. Amended by striking out all but the second section, which provides for four additional voting precincts in the city of Memphis. Passed second reading.

LATE NEWS.

—The suit brought by Faran & McLean, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, to resist the County Treasurer's collection of the tax assessed upon thirty-one thousand dollars of greenbacks, as so much capital, was decided against the tax. It was held that greenbacks were but a form of a loan, and like all other loans of the United States were exempt from State taxation.

—Secretary McCulloch has done a good thing. He checkmated the gold gamblers yesterday who had bought largely for a rise predicated on impeachment. He threw a few millions of gold on the market, and the rings were caught.

—The Secretary of the Treasury yesterday sent to the Senate the request of Commissioner Wells favoring the repeal of the cotton tax, but without any recommendation thereupon. There is no doubt of the repeal of the tax.

—The character of the financial propositions introduced in Congress yesterday, especially those looking to a withdrawal of the national bank currency and taxing United States bonds, demonstrate clearly a change of policy. It was remarked as significant that the Western members voted together, irrespective of party.

—It is understood that the chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means will report against further contraction, which will be in direct conflict with McCulloch's views.

—The latest advices from Hayti and St. Domingo confirm the reports of a rupture between the two countries. The insurrection against the authority of Solnave, in Hayti, has come to an end. The revolutionists on the frontier of St. Domingo number 4000 men. They are in possession of the important province of Cobba.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

—A destructive fire occurred at Houston, Texas, on the 14th instant. The loss is estimated at $100,000. The machine shop of Mr. Henry House was destroyed.

—Gen. J. B. Hood has removed from New Orleans to Galveston.

—The smallest watch at the Paris Exposition was so diminutive that it was set in a gold pencil-case.

—There were two heavy failures in Philadelphia Monday. One for $800,000, the other $300,000.

—A Hartford bank keeper has absconded with $3000, and leaving a large indebtedness.

—August Belmont, and other parties, propose to provide Newport with a race course as well as Saratoga.

—Mr. Lincoln's portrait is done in silk at Lyons. Those of Washington, Napoleon and Alexander are the only others.

—A terrible tragedy has occurred in Austrian Tyrol. A farmer after effecting a heavy insurance on his house and barns, set fire to the latter, but was discovered in the act by one of his shepherds. He therefore killed the shepherd and murdered his wife and infant son, finishing by cutting his own throat.

—James Farr, a well known lumber dealer of Chicago, failed Friday, with liabilities exceeding a quarter of million dollars.

—The liabilities of James K. Place & Co., wholesale spice dealers, on Front street, New York, will reach over $2,000,000. The failure is believed to be very bad.

—The Yazoo (Miss.,) Banner says that Mr. Eugene Roach, of that county, has rented fifteen hundred acres of land to white men who intend to cultivate it themselves, each man having a little farm to himself.

—The New Orleans Times, of last Thursday, says: Sales of real estate are as dull now as have almost ever been known in the city. On Saturday last there were a dozen orders offering something like $200,000 worth of property, without exciting much attention. The sales of the whole day hardly amounted to $30,000. At this time last year from a quarter to a third of a million were frequently disposed of.

—The New Albany Ledger contains the following horrible paragraph: There resides in New Albany a family by the name of Y——g, composed of husband, wife and two daughters,—the latter aged respectively twelve and fourteen years. Both the husband and wife are of highly respectable families, and were raised under the strictest religious influences. Yesterday afternoon the two daughters of these parents, both of them well developed for their age, were out upon the streets, arrayed in the gaudiest attire, and engaged in soliciting men to accompany them home for the basest purposes. They go about their work with the most complete effrontery, and their male company is taken to the house of their mother and father, neither of whom manifest the least repugnance to the shocking sight and the terrible crime.

—Major General Wool has nearly ready for the press a volume of military recollections of more than fifty years.

—A prisoner, who had received notice that he was to die the next morning, was asked by some of his unfortunate companions to share their repast with them. He answered, "I never eat anything that I expect will not digest."

—The number of spindles employed in Great Britain, in the manufacture of cotton, exceeds 36,000,000. When in good work, as many as 68,994,602 miles of thread are made per working day of ten hours, or sufficient to encompass the earth four times in every minute.

—California is going extensively into the culture of castor beans. The yield on an average is worth more than $150 to the acre.

—The entire State liability of Tennessee, actual and contingent, is $32,562,323 58. The whole taxable property of the State is estimated at $230,367,631.

—An infant was bitten in its sleep by a rat, some two weeks ago, in Norfolk. No blood issued from the wound, but the child was next day attacked with symptoms of erysipelas, and despite the utmost efforts of the physicians it died in ten days of that disease.

—During the past twelve years statues of five eminent citizens have been placed in the public square in Boston. Those thus honored are Franklin, Webster, Mann, Alexander Hamilton and Everett. Probable statues of the elder Quincy and John A. Andrew will soon be added to this list.

—The following, given on the authority of a Jefferson street druggist, is worth knowing, if true: A poison of any conceivable description and degree of potency, which has been swallowed, intentionally or by accident, may be rendered instantly harmless by swallowing two gills of sweet oil. An individual with a very strong constitution should take twice the quantity. This oil will neutralize every form of vegetable or mineral poison with which physicians or chemists are acquainted.

GENERAL DULLNESS IN BUSINESS.

From the New York Herald.]

The present condition of our leading commercial houses is calculated to alarm the minds of the most careless and reckless, and make people reflect seriously on the causes of such a state of affairs. Everywhere the same complaints of utter stagnation of trade are heard, and the largest establishments are conducting their business on a scale equal only to some small retailer, to one-tenth of their usual requirements. As a consequence of this general dullness in trade, hundreds are thrown out of employment and the city is filled with clerks, salesmen, seamstresses and others unable to procure the means of daily subsistence. A glance at the advertising columns of the Herald, will be sufficient to convince any one of the immense increase of "situations wanted." It has been estimated that there are no less than ten thousand women in this city seeking employment in any capacity by which food and shelter may be procured. The list of commercial failures this year is almost sufficient to cause a strong feeling of distrust and suspicion among all circles, and auction sales are extensively resorted to by some of the largest firms to keep up their business.

Now, this is a very serious state of things, and the causes should be made known to the entire country. Some of our oldest and most discerning merchants ascribe the stagnation of trade to the unsettled state of the country, owing to the persistent exclusion by Congress of ten important States from commercial as well as political rights and privileges; to the ruinous financial policy of the Government in the contraction of the currency, and the pestilential national banks; to the too frequent and needlessly long sessions of Congress, and the continued meddling with the tariff, and to the gigantic frauds which are daily perpetrated with immunity by illigitimate traders. The Southern trade, which has always been of vital importance to the commercial interests of the nation, is now prostrated by the suicidal fanaticism of the Radicals in Congress. Not content with injuring the trade in this particular, they paralyze it completely by constantly holding over our merchants' heads threats of legislation of the most pernicious and contradictory kind. Then, to finish the work, we have our unfortunate currency tampered with and made a by-word of reproach as mere food for the larpies of the national banks. Is it any wonder, then, that business should be dull, nay, that it should be utterly prostrate? The remedy is obvious, and should be applied at once. Comprehensive, sensible and speedy legislation on the part of Congress will soon sweep away those evils. Business has come to a pass now that ultra views, party spite and narrow prejudices in legislating upon it are absolutely criminal. At all events, the people have come to an understanding of the question, and its solution cannot long be deferred.

IN MEMORIAM.

We place immortelles on the graves of our dead heroes; shall we do less for him who patiently endured more? They having died for the land they could not save,

"Sleep deep, sleep in peace, sleep in memory over;
Wrapt, each soul in the deeds of its deathless endeavor!"

He stood in the van of the battle beside you, joyed with you, sorrowed with you, loved you; and no heart beat higher with the hope of victory, no anguish was deeper or more heartfelt on defeat, than that of CLARENCE CAREY MALONE.

We have daily seen our friends stricken around us, and we have sorrowed for them with "a sorrow akin to pain," but this blow is so sudden, so heavy, so hard to bear! A mound of freshly heaped earth covers our CLARENCE, while the tender eloquence of tears is the tribute those who knew him pay. We knew him endowed with high intellect, spiritual, though manly beauty, and those attributes of ancient chivalry, almost obsolete, but which we occasionally meet, as if the Gods themselves would prove the Order of the Round Table not yet extinct.

In the glory of his manhood he was stricken down, and in our agony we cried, "Oh, God! if it be possible, let this cup pass from us;" but "Thy thoughts are not our thoughts, neither are Thy ways our ways;" and with torn hearts and streaming eyes, we look up and try to say, "Not our will, Oh, God! but Thine be done!"

Our plaints reach not the "dear ears that are stopped with the brown dust of death," but if our heartfelt sympathy, our tears in unison with thine, can give one ray of comfort to thy almost broken heart, lone mother, then these words are not written in vain.

OBITUARY.

YANCEY.—Died, in this city, of yellow fever, on Thursday, November 21, 1867, Miss ROSINA F. YANCEY, aged thirty-eight years.

The deceased was the eldest daughter of the late R. J. Yancey, of this city, and the eldest of eleven brothers and sisters, of whom only four now survive. She was born in Petersburg, Va., May 25, 1829, and removed to Memphis with her parents in 1848. She was for many years connected with the public schools of the city, and taught a school of high grade with great acceptance, until infirm health required her to relinquish a post which she had filled with signal ability and success. She was endowed by nature with rare intellectual gifts, and these had been improved by careful and judicious study, until she was fitted to occupy successfully any field of literary effort. Yet such was the modesty and gentleness of her nature that she sought only the most quiet and unobtrusive walks of life, and the real wealth of her character was known only to those who shared the intimacies of her private life. Affectionate, gentle and kind, her death leaves a breach in the household which may not be healed.

To all the graces of her character she added that which is the highest grace—a lovely and consistent christian deportment. On the 25th of April, 1858, she united herself with the Second Presbyterian Church on profession of faith, and remained a consistent and active member until the day of her death. Her end was, as might be expected, peaceful and joyous. As the last several times expressed it, "This is not death—it is triumph." Her mind was clear, her faith unclouded, her trust fixed immutably upon Christ, and, as calmly and sweetly she bade farewell to all that were around her, and left her messages of love and comfort for those that were away, the very light of heaven seemed to be playing upon her features. The sting of death was taken away, and a triumphant entrance was given her into the mansions of rest above. May He who gave to her the victory, give to the survivors the comfort of His grace, and grant them a glorious reunion where sorrow is no more.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH

Night Dispatches.

[WESTERN ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.]

NEW ORLEANS, November 28.—Gen. Mower this afternoon issued an order removing the Lieutenants of the Police in the Second District, and an Aid to the Chief of Police. This will probably be his last order.

Gen. Hancock arrived at 5 o'clock this evening. The troops who had been on the levee since 9 a.m., had left about half past three, and there was no public reception of any kind, as the General left the boat in citizens' dress.

There was but little observation of Thanksgiving. The Customhouse, Postoffice and a few other public offices were closed, and the Convention and Courts had adjourned until to-morrow, but the banks and business houses transacted business as usual, and the heaviest sales of cotton this season were made to-day. All the papers issued as usual, except the Evening Republican.

[Note—The telegraph offices north of here are all closed to-night in observance of Thanksgiving day. REP.]

TELEGRAPHIC MARKETS.

NEW ORLEANS, November 28.—Sugar unchanged. Molasses lower; common, 50@55c; prime, 75c; choice, 80@83c. Flour extremely dull; no quotations. Corn better at $1 10@1 13. Oats dull and lower, 78c. Pork quiet, but firmer, $22 75. Bacon dull and declined; shoulders, jobbing, 11½c; clear sides, 15½c. Lard very dull; no sales. Cotton steadier; middling Orleans, 15½@16c; sales 5600 bales; receipts 5008 bales. Sterling, 48@52. New York sight ¼ discount and par. Gold 38¾@38¾.

THE New Haven Palladium publishes the following from a correspondent who is on intimate terms with Gen. Grant and who had a free interview with the General:

> Speaking of the strictures of the New York Tribune on his relations, General Grant said: If there have been any complaints of any assumption of a fact which I may know to be erroneous, I do not now and here controvert them. If there be in them any inferences which I may believe falsely drawn, I will not now and here argue against them. If there be perceptible in them an impatient and dictatorial tone, I waive it in deference to others who have a right to think and speak, as they may be prompted by a sense of duty. As to my principles I have not meant to leave any one in doubt. I would save the country. I would save it in the shortest way under the Constitution. If there be those who would not save the country unless they could at the same time save their own theories, I do not agree with them. My wish is to save the country, and as soon as possible to restore all the States to their proper relations as such, and upon the principles of even-handed justice. What I do in the premises is because I believe it helps to save the country, and what I forbear I forbear because I do not believe it helps to save the country.
>
> I shall do less whenever I believe I am doing what hurts the cause. I shall do more whenever I believe that doing so helps the cause. I have now stated my sense of personal and official duty, and I intend no modification of my oft repeated personal wish that all men may be permitted to think freely and on all suitable occasions speak out what they think, if by so doing they can benefit mankind and help save the country.
>
> An immense mass meeting at Cooper Institute to give expression to the indignation at the outrages upon the rights of loyal American citizens by the British Government. Speeches were made by Judge Daley, Horace Greeley, John Cochran, and others. Letters were received from Gens. Banks and Butler. A committee will proceed to Washington to urge upon the Government measures for the protection of naturalized citizens throughout the world.

FOR RENT FOR THE YEAR 1868.

A SMALL FARM, in the immediate vicinity of Germantown, and not more than three miles from the Memphis and Charleston railroad. Mr. Wise has been for some time a conductor on the road, and in that capacity has made hosts of friends, as he will no doubt do in his new position. We commend him as a first-class, reliable gentleman.
Our friend Col. J. B. McCaffrey, returned yesterday from a business trip to the "Rock City," and reports business there exceedingly dull.
J. A. Signingo, editor of the Grenada Sentinel, was in town yesterday on a flying visit. He is as handsome as ever.

A SOLID AND WELL ESTABLISHED FIRM.—There is no more substantial firm in the city of Memphis than that of Tobin, Lynn & Co., dealers in dry goods, groceries and plantation supplies, 346 Main street. Their stock this season is unusually large, and is of excellent quality, and will be sold at the lowest market prices. All cotton shipped to them by planters will be sold by Mr. Wm. J. Pace and John W. Chamberlain, two experienced cotton salesmen, from De-Soto county, Mississippi. Their dealing with their friends and patrons have been eminently satisfactory to all concerned in the past, and we know that they will continue to watch with vigilance and promote, on every occasion, the interest of those who may entrust them with their business.

THANKSGIVING.—A few stores were closed yesterday, and the turkeys that accustomed to bake and boil in New England, with oyster stuffing and all the other piquant condiments, were served on several tables. As a matter of history, the "unreconstructed" did not observe the day with any unusual attention. There were services in the churches, and devout Christians offered up their prayers, but as a general thing the day passed off like any other day of the week. We should have been pleased to see the people attending to the solemn rites appointed for the day, but when their temporal concerns are imperilled they have a right to frown, when possibly smiles were looked for.

NOCTURNAL FEMALE PEDESTRIANS. Would it not be a good idea and subserving the ends of morality if the Chief of Police would direct his subordinates to enforce the ordinance prohibiting women, whether white or black, from walking the streets after night—unless accompanied by an escort of the opposite sex. No respectable lady would appear ordinarily on our streets after nightfall without a gentleman, and an enforcement of this ordinance will serve to rid the city of a vile and intolerable nuisance in the banishment of the loose and depraved women who in considerable numbers appear nightly on the streets, much to the annoyance and disgust of all decent men and women. Their foul language rivaling the billingsgate of a fish woman of the seine spoken in sufficiently loud tones to be heard by persons on the opposite side of the street, calls loudly for abatement, and if the authorities will only turn their attention to this shameless evil, and inaugurate measures prohibiting it, they will receive the thanks of a respectable portion of the community. We have several times called attention to this matter and hope that it may be remedied without the necessity of further reference.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—A very fair house greeted Miss Fanny B. Price at the New Memphis last night. The drama presented was Nobody's Daughter, which has been dramatized expressly for Miss Fanny Price, by Mr. J. Hanchett from Miss Braddon's novel. The star performed "Jenny Wilson" and "Lady Eversleigh" in a very creditable manner. The "Lankspar" of Frank Roche was all that could be expected from him. It was correct and good. Miss Price was ably supported by the stock company, every one of which filled their parts well and to the satisfaction of the audience. The play is one which cannot fail to excite interest. Miss Price throws much feeling into the part. We are glad to know that for her benefit, to-night, Nobody's Daughter will be repeated. On Saturday afternoon a matinee will be given.

GREENLAW OPERA HOUSE.—The Tale of Enchantment drew an excellent house last evening. The deep interest of the drama was well sustained by the principal persons, and the dancing and tableaux received enthusiastic applause. The falling water, the river of blood, and the dew drop scene, were most loudly applauded. The energy of Mr. Deagle has met with the merited commendation of the public, and the elegant entertainment he presents, with its splendor of dresses, magnificent dances and attractive effects, are worthy of the enthusiastic applause bestowed every evening. There is one who is a STAR in herself, as she glides through the various dances. Miss Helen De Vere takes her first benefit to-night. She deserves a good house.

VARIETIES. — Notwithstanding the rainy day and evening, this place of amusement was well filled last night. The singing, dancing and acting of the performers drew forth repeated encores. Mr. Broom manages his house acceptably to his patrons.

The Ladies are invited to call and examine our stock. Lindauer, Arnold & Co. 311 Main street. nov13 1m

WANTED—THE PATENT

AURORA OIL.

We want men every where to study their own interests. The right to manufacture and sell the Patent Aurora Oil in a single county will make more money to the purchaser in three months, than the largest farm in your State will make in a whole year. The Aurora Oil actually costs less than one-half the price of Coal Oil, and the illuminating power of the Aurora Oil is as much superior to the Coal Oil as the Coal Oil is to a tallow candle, and is NO MORE explosive than a tallow candle. Any Lamp that will burn Coal Oil will burn the Aurora Oil. It does not smoke the chimney, it does not smell—it will not grease or stain the finest linen—not even white cloth. The material for its manufacture is inexhaustible. One man can make seventy-five barrels per day. No machinery required. We will pay your fare to and from this city of Memphis and bills while here, if we cannot prove all, and even more, than we have stated. A single county is a small fortune to the man of enterprise, and the right to a State is untold wealth.

CITY MATTERS.

BUSINESS.—We request that our advertising patrons hand in their favors at the Counting Room by six o'clock p.m., to insure insertion next day. Obituary and death notices will be received at the Composition Room up to eleven o'clock.

BROKE JAIL.—Yesterday morning three of the mackerel species broke out of the Adams street prison. James Conners was captured, but his confederates got off. These young vagabonds have a peculiar faculty of creeping out, even through a knot hole.

STEALING A CITY WARRANT.—A young specimen of humanity, named Mike Lynch, was arrested by the Police yesterday, charged with stealing a city warrant. He was furnished with quarters at Capt. Garrett's hotel on Adams street.

RASCALLY.—One of Ariel's "Beasts" on yesterday Butlerized some apples from an Italian fruiter on Main street, and immediately broke and run up Main street to the stairway of the owner, who could not leave his stand to give chase for fear that some one else might come along and appropriate what remained.

FRAUDULENT APPROPRIATION.—A negro man named Sam Moonday was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by Justice Hall, charged with appropriating a quantity of property belonging to a colored neighbor. The evidence against him was of such a damaging character that the Justice felt warranted in committing the accused in default of one thousand dollars bail.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.—A negro named Harrison was accidentally shot, at No. 105 Fourth street, yesterday afternoon by Fred Bruce who keeps a saloon in that vicinity. The accused was arrested and taken before Col. Beaumont, but the evidence showing that the shooting was purely accidental, Bruce was discharged, and the wounded man was properly cared for.

A BIG SNAKE.—A day or two since, while Mr. Frank Pledge, of Grand Junction, and Capt. Campbell, of La Grange, were out hunting near the latter place, they killed an immense rattle snake. The reptile measured about twelve feet, and was the possessor of thirty-three rattles. This snake will never adorn a museum, unless the killers have enterprise enough to hand over the remains to a taxidermist.

A LILLIPUTIAN MILL.—Two mackerels had a vigorous fisticuff in Center alley, near the Worsham House, yesterday evening, which was intended by them as a partial commemoration of Thanksgiving Day. They fought until they got tired, not, however, without realizing the truth of the poet, that

"Those who in fights interpose,
Must often wipe a bloody nose."

OUR WHOLESOME FRIENDS.—One of our most gratifying pleasures is to call upon a good house and a reliable firm. Such a one is that of our young friends Thurmond, Foster & Co., No. 11 Monroe street, who have the best of tobacco, chewing and smoking, that can be found in this city; and those of our friends who chew, we choose to recommend them to the above house, where we will ne plus ultra."

FEMALE SHOOTING.—The notorious Sallie Dean was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by Justice Miller, accused of shooting at Jennie Dickerson. It appears that Sallie met Jennie opposite the Basket saloon on Main street, about eleven o'clock on Wednesday night, and drawing a large brass key, demanded the "head fixin's" of the complainant, which was immediately handed over. The accused will be examined at 3 p.m. to-day.

WATER VALLEY.—The peculiar operations of our elegant cotemporaries, especially when they come from Water Valley, and the "diggin's" there round-about, make for us a heavy drag in our local columns. Ed. Randolph was here last evening, and made us feel as if we "were a boy again." If he will only stay at home, and make those presses fly, he has a "good thing," if not a fortune close at hand, which is a good thing these days.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure last night of meeting Mr. John S. Wise, Passenger Agent of the Memphis and Charleston railroad. Mr. Wise has been for some time a conductor on the road, and in that capacity has made hosts of friends, as he will no doubt do in his new position. We commend him as a first-class, reliable gentleman.

Our friend Col. J. B. McCaffrey, returned yesterday from a business trip to the "Rock City," and reports business there exceedingly dull.

J. A. Signingo, editor of the Grenada Sentinel, was in town yesterday on a flying visit. He is as handsome as ever.

A SOLID AND WELL ESTABLISHED FIRM.—There is no more substantial firm in the city of Memphis than that of Tobin, Lynn & Co., dealers in dry goods, groceries and plantation supplies, 346 Main street. Their stock this season is unusually large, and is of excellent quality, and will be sold at the lowest market prices. All cotton shipped to them by planters will be sold by Mr. Wm. J. Pace and John W. Chamberlain, two experienced cotton salesmen, from De-Soto county, Mississippi. Their dealing with their friends and patrons have been eminently satisfactory to all concerned in the past, and we know that they will continue to watch with vigilance and promote, on every occasion, the interest of those who may entrust them with their business.

THANKSGIVING.—A few stores were closed yesterday, and the turkeys that accustomed to bake and boil in New England, with oyster stuffing and all the other piquant condiments, were served on several tables. As a matter of history, the "unreconstructed" did not observe the day with any unusual attention. There were services in the churches, and devout Christians offered up their prayers, but as a general thing the day passed off like any other day of the week. We should have been pleased to see the people attending to the solemn rites appointed for the day, but when their temporal concerns are imperilled they have a right to frown, when possibly smiles were looked for.

NOCTURNAL FEMALE PEDESTRIANS. Would it not be a good idea and subserving the ends of morality if the Chief of Police would direct his subordinates to enforce the ordinance prohibiting women, whether white or black, from walking the streets after night—unless accompanied by an escort of the opposite sex. No respectable lady would appear ordinarily on our streets after nightfall without a gentleman, and an enforcement of this ordinance will serve to rid the city of a vile and intolerable nuisance in the banishment of the loose and depraved women who in considerable numbers appear nightly on the streets, much to the annoyance and disgust of all decent men and women. Their foul language rivaling the billingsgate of a fish woman of the seine spoken in sufficiently loud tones to be heard by persons on the opposite side of the street, calls loudly for abatement, and if the authorities will only turn their attention to this shameless evil, and inaugurate measures prohibiting it, they will receive the thanks of a respectable portion of the community. We have several times called attention to this matter and hope that it may be remedied without the necessity of further reference.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—A very fair house greeted Miss Fanny B. Price at the New Memphis last night. The drama presented was Nobody's Daughter, which has been dramatized expressly for Miss Fanny Price, by Mr. J. Hanchett from Miss Braddon's novel. The star performed "Jenny Wilson" and "Lady Eversleigh" in a very creditable manner. The "Lankspar" of Frank Roche was all that could be expected from him. It was correct and good. Miss Price was ably supported by the stock company, every one of which filled their parts well and to the satisfaction of the audience. The play is one which cannot fail to excite interest. Miss Price throws much feeling into the part. We are glad to know that for her benefit, to-night, Nobody's Daughter will be repeated. On Saturday afternoon a matinee will be given.

GREENLAW OPERA HOUSE.—The Tale of Enchantment drew an excellent house last evening. The deep interest of the drama was well sustained by the principal persons, and the dancing and tableaux received enthusiastic applause. The falling water, the river of blood, and the dew drop scene, were most loudly applauded. The energy of Mr. Deagle has met with the merited commendation of the public, and the elegant entertainment he presents, with its splendor of dresses, magnificent dances and attractive effects, are worthy of the enthusiastic applause bestowed every evening. There is one who is a STAR in herself, as she glides through the various dances. Miss Helen De Vere takes her first benefit to-night. She deserves a good house.

VARIETIES. — Notwithstanding the rainy day and evening, this place of amusement was well filled last night. The singing, dancing and acting of the performers drew forth repeated encores. Mr. Broom manages his house acceptably to his patrons.

The Ladies are invited to call and examine our stock. Lindauer, Arnold & Co. 311 Main street. nov13 1m

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH AT NASHVILLE.

FIFTH DAY.

Assembly met at 9½ o'clock, and opened with prayer.

By resolution the Assembly recommended the "Southern Presbyterian Review" to the Church as worthy of better support.

A letter was read from Rev. T. D. Witherspoon, Delegate to attend the meeting of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, telling the Assembly that he had attended to the duty entrusted to him. The thanks of the Assembly were returned to Mr. Witherspoon for the faithful discharge of his duty.

The Assembly then listened to Rev. Dr. Baird, the Delegate of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church to this Assembly. The Dr. adressed the Assembly with great earnestness and eloquence, telling the Assembly what his Church was trying to do in the great vineyard of the Lord, and closing his address with a touching allusion to Rev. Dr. Davis, late of Memphis.'

Dr. Moore then responded in his usual touching manner. He rejoiced in the prosperity of the Cumberland Church, and he expressed the sentiment of his Church when he bade him God speed; there are memories of struggles and trials which were the common inheritence of both Churches; memories touching and tender, connecting back to the hour of suffering, which was announced in the words, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace, good will to men." He felt the Doctor had the feelings of the hearts of many, if not all of his Church, yet it is our position, our singleness in bearing testimony to the faith of the Church and our relations to our standards, forbid us now consummating an organic union, yet side by side, hand in hand we work together until we shall all meet in the General Assembly and Church of the first born in Heaven. Overture No. 5 in regard to a Third Theological Seminary was then read. The Committee recommended the answer to be made, that it was inexpedient to attempt to form another Seminary. Adopted.

The report of the Committee on Systematic Benevolence was read. This report indicates a growing spirit in this matter.

After a spirited discussion the plan of last year was adopted as the fixed policy of the Church.

Dr. Lyon, Chairman of the Committee to whom was referred the papers of the Kentucky delegation, read their report, stating the position now occupied by the Synod of Kentucky as shown by their published deliverance that the desire of the Synod is to be assured that there is an entire unanimity between the Synod and the Assembly. This unanimity is found in the deliverances of our church.

During the discussion of the resolutions offered by the Committee the hour for devotional exercises arrived, after which the Assembly adjourned. The resolutions of the Committee will be furnished to-morrow.

SIXTH DAY.

The Assembly met and opened with prayer. The minutes of yesterday were read and adopted.

The Committee on Education had leave to make a short report. Much has been done, but much more ought to be done.

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly regard the education of young men as a very great and glorious purpose.

2. That a special meeting be held on Thursday night to consider this purpose.

The report was received, and during the discussion the resolutions were postponed and docketed.

The Committee on Sustentation had leave to make a report. The principal matter of the report was to acknowledge the receipt of large donations from Kentucky and Baltimore, and the appointment of a committee for the ensuing year. The report was received and adopted.

The unfinished business of yesterday was taken up and considered, the first resolution having been adopted yester day.

Resolved, That this Assembly express its deep sympathy with our brethren in Kentucky in the troubles through which they have been passing during the last seven years, and its admiration of the firmness and which they have taken for the spiritual independence of the Church of Christ.

2. That this General Assembly declines, as heretofore, to make any utterance concerning the acts of the body against which the Synod protests; yet the Assembly feels free to solemnly assure the Synod of Kentucky, not only of our cordial approval of and sincere concurrence in, substantially, the Synod's statement of the doctrine and constitutional principles contained under the four heads of the third division of their letter, but of our sincere joy to find our brethren of Kentucky so ready to unite with us in solemn covenant with a view, among other things, to the advancement and maintenance of these doctrines and principles as against the apparent Erastian tendencies of our American Protestantism.

During the discussion of the resolution the Moderator announced the order of the day, viz: To receive the delegate from the Synod of Missouri.

Rev. E. Penney then took the stand. He regretted that the other members of the delegation were not present. He expressed the deep sympathy of the church in Missouri with the church in the South. He did not come now asking an organic union; one might jeopardise important interests of the Church. Another reason is that she Synod has been called into a conspicuous position contending for the crown rights of Jesus Christ. We are trying to save the Church. We are not without hope. Many in the North are beginning to doubt the infallibility of the Assembly, and these men have asked us to wait a while, that the border men may form a golden link to bind the church together.

We will again go before the Northern Assembly and unfurl the banner of our Lord Jesus, and ask them to pause in this violent strife. He then read an extract from a letter from Rev. Mr. Farris, expressing the same sentiments.

Whatever may be the issue, the Presbyterians of Missouri will not consent to a final ecclesiastical separation with the Church in the South. We are now using your books and want more of them.

He did not propose to review the past. A day more than a year ago, those who held on to the Assembly went out from us. The secession took off about one-third of our ministers, hardly a fourth of the members. Our missionaries have been thrown off, yet we have supported them.

The Moderator replied—

It gave him pleasure to state the joy his presence gave. We have known your sorrows and sufferings. We have sympathized with you. Many of your boys lie by ours in a common grave, and we can never cease to feel with and for you. We welcome you with joy. We can never forget the testimony of your sympathy in supplying the necessities of starving people. We are also one with you in the Church; your principles are our principles. With these we reign or fall together. With regard to organic union, we say whenever you feel the way clear to chain us in closer bonds, you will find the "latch-string outside."

May God remain with you and yours ever more!

On motion of Dr. Smith, a special committee was appointed to make a minute in reference to the reception of the delegates from the Synod of Missouri. Dr. Smith was made chairman of the committee.

The next order of the day was to hear the report of the Committee on Publication, which was read by Dr. Chapman, the chairman.

The Assembly then resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Reception of Delegates of the Synod of Kentucky.

The second resolution was then adopted:

Resolved 3, That the letter of the Synod of Kentucky be admitted to record, as they suggest, as a part of the historical acts and monuments of the church, by being published in the appendix to the Minutes of this Assembly.

Resolved 4, That this Assembly cordially approves of the determination of the Synod of Kentucky, as expressed in the sixth resolution of its minutes of June 28, 1867, communicated by its commissioners to this Assembly to assert fully all its legal claims, as a part of the "Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," and to reserve all its legal rights of property as the Synod in any union which may be formed with this body.

Resolved 5, That this Assembly assures the Synod of Kentucky of a cordial welcome to our body, and its Standing Committee on Commissions is hereby instructed to receive and enroll without further order, Commissioners properly accredited from the Presbyteries of Ebenezer, Louisville, Muhlenburg, Paducah, West Lexington and Transylvania. All of which is respectfully submitted.
J. A. LYON, Chairman.

The Assembly unanimously adopted the whole paper.

On motion the delegation from Kentucky was then heard.

Rev. S. Robinson said—

He felt like Chrisimas had come, and he felt at peace with all mankind, and hoped he could stand in the place of the Southern Church. Many efforts had been made to find an organization but had failed. Thank God we are to-day with you. This is the Old School Presbyterian Church and you ought to feel so more than you do. The Southern Church is the Church, and he wanted to see all the Presbyterian element come to this Church.

Dr. Mathews said—

He was glad to stand here as a member. Everybody cried wait, wait. He had gotten tired. He looked upon this Church as the true Church.

Rev. Mr. Davies said—

He did not want the opportunity to pass without expressing his feelings. He had tried to find a parallel to this scene in the history of the Church. It cannot be called a reunion. We have never been divided. We have been with you in prayer and hope. The hearts of the people have been crying for union with this Church. And now you will bear almost a unanimous cry of joy. Let us be neither new school or old school, but the Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Mr. Barnes said—

If he said but few words it was because he could not speak. He could only say "Thank God! Joy, peace and rest. Thank God!"

The Moderator said he would not try to express the feelings of the Assembly. The brethren from Kentucky knew our feelings, so often expressed. If there ever has been a difference of opinions expressed, that difference pertained only to the form of expressing our cordial appreciation of their work. They come to those who love them; for we cannot forget their sympathy in our struggle to reorganize our institutions. We have no element of disquietude, and are happy to know our brethren are coming with us. The harmony, peace and joy of our Church are offered them; we welcome them, and let them go back and tell the Churches how they may find peace.

The Moderator then called on Rev. Mr. Barnes to lead in prayer.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made a partial report, which was in substance, that the education and evangelization of the freedmen be left as before, and affirm that our books shuts out of the Church or her offices no man on account of his race or condition, and the Presbyterians must deal with the black man as they deal with the white man.

Pending the consideration of the report, the hour for Devotional exercises was announced, after which the Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9½ o'clock.
DELTA.

FIRST DAY'S RACES.—Owing to the inclemency of the weather for the last few days, and the dull appearance of to-day, many persons who anticipated going to the races, concluded as "old Sol" disdained to smile upon the trial of speed to tickle "the taste of the most fastidious," they would not waste their "stamps" upon the "scalpers" of this city, and most wisely resolved to stay at home; consequently the attendance upon the track was small, and not as large as we could have wished. The pools were selling previous to the race upon John Elmore against Idol. The track was heavy and on the first heat Elmore took the lead with Idol close at his heels. On they went to the half mile post, Elmore maintaining this position and carrying the lead past the three-quarter post, when Idol came up pushing him neck to neck until they reached the log stand, when Idol left the course to let Elmore, who won the heat amid the applause of all the spectators upon the stand in 2:56¾, which, considering the heavy track, was equal to 2:45 upon a good track. After resting and sponging the horses nearly an hour, they addressed up for another trial, and at the tap of the drum Elmore had the lead and the inside track. On they went, each horse bringing all their muscles into play. Neck to neck and heel to heel, and each vieing the other, as if jealous of their speed until they reached the half mile post, when the grey (Elmore) leave the sorrel (Idol) full length. Tilting on they came, and at the three-quarter post Idol pushed her best, pushing Elmore neck to neck, and it was only when they passed the flag-stand they found that Elmore was a neck ahead, and maintained his position until he passed the string, making the heat in 2:58¾, which, considering the track and the second heat, was much better than any one gave them credit for. After the duly considered rest, washing out of mouths, etc., the bell tapped to harness up, which was done with all the precaution and scrutiny belonging to the three-quarter race course, performed by the trainers, and at the tap of the drum the Idol took the start, but was overtaken by Elmore who took the lead at the half mile post and kept it up until the three-quarters post, when Idol closed in and came up finely. On they came—Elmore on the inside track and Idol on the outside, trying to pass. Up they came, mud flying, drivers hallooing, horses blowing, ears back, and pawing mud until they reached the line, when Elmore came in a length ahead and won the race; time 2:57½.

On the second race, as there was no one who had "Skeleton" to run, there was no race, and the races will now be postponed until Saturday, when we expect to see a good trotting report the winning horse, which we know will be of interest to all horsemen, who will find a correct report of the races in our Sunday issue.

SUMMARY:

John Elmore	1-1-1
Idol	2-2-2
First heat, time, 2:56¾.
Second heat, time, 2:58¾.
Third heat, time, 2:57½.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH.—The Ball Monday evening in the Exchange building, for the benefit of the St. Mary's Church, corner of Third and Market streets, was a perfect success. A fine gold-headed cane was voted for to the most prominent policeman of the city. Mr. J. Costillo was the successful candidate. A beautiful embroidered pin-cushion was voted for to the most attractive lady, and Miss Annie Melone was the lucky recipient. After supper the band struck up the "Marseilles Hymn," after which Mr. A. Hitzfeld presented a magnificent gold-headed cane to Father Quinlan, the Reverend Head of the St. Mary's Church, for and on behalf of the congregation of his Church, accompanying the same with appropriate remarks, setting forth the high esteem entertained by the members of his church and for his laborious duties during the late epidemic; when with fearless heart and steady step he hastened to the bed-side of the sick and the dying, obeying the mandates of Him who holds the fate of man in the hollow of his hands—who is found over all denominations, sects and religious persuasion whatsoever. The congregation with a warrior at its head, might well go to the battle with a firm belief of certain victory over all obstacles whatsoever. Father Schneider responded in eloquent language to the sentiments offered on behalf of the Church, and felt flattered by the handsome testimonial so unexpectedly donated to him, and promised that in the future, as in the past, he should try to perform the duties of his holy office to the best of his ability and bear the grateful remembrance of this happy occasion until the will of the Most High should see fit to let his labors in His Church on Earth cease for the purpose of rewarding the same in the realm above. The supper was arranged under the superintendence of Victor Fuchs, the well known grocer and game dealer of Jefferson street renown. The music was superb, and lager beer and wine freely used by the merry crowd of gallants, men and beautiful ladies, and everything passed off quiet and satisfactory to all concerned, until Aurora warned the merry dancers that a new day was making its appearance to cut short the pleasure of the feast. The Church received substantial evidences of the kind intentions to the amount of over five hundred dollars.

The Liverpool cotton market opened dull today, with Uplands, 8d; Orleans, 8¾d. At noon it was also dull and tending downwards for all lands, quoting Orleans, 8¾d. The closing dispatch announced it still dull and tending lower, with Uplands 8 13-16d; Orleans 8¾d. Sales for the day 10,000 bales. The New York market opened quiet but steady. Middling, 17½c; Mobile, 17½c; New Orleans, 17¾@18c. At noon the market was dull, and prices nominally unchanged. At 2 p.m. it was very dull and unsettled, with quotations impossible to get accurately; Middling, 16¾c; Mobile, 16¾c; Orleans, 17@17¼c, and these same in all grades. Sales for the day 1200 bales. Our market during the early part of the day was active, when the receipts were taken into consideration. Bright Middlings were in demand at 14½c, and holders were not slow to sell at that figure. After 2 p.m., however, and the receipt of the bad news from the East, there was nothing done, the market closed dull and tending downwards.

KAVANAGH & DECKER'S

BILLIARD TABLES

THE most reliable Cushion used on Billiard Tables is the

CAT-GUT CUSHION,

Manufactured by KAVANAGH & DECKER, and Patented Dec. 18, 1866. (See Scientific American, Vol. 18, No. 11.)

It is the only Cushion that possesses all the qualities essential to a Perfect Cushion. It is the most elastic and most durable Cushion ever offered to the billiard playing public, as is abundantly proven by the great demand for it since its introduction. The peculiarity which distinguishes the Cat-Gut Cushion and renders it superior to all others, is the tightened cord of cat-gut which covers the inner edge of the rubber and running the full length of the Cushion, which prevents the ball from bedding into the rubber and jumping from the table. The addition of the cat-gut cord also adds much to the elasticity of the Cushion.

The Cat-Gut Cushion has already been applied to over 100 tables, which are in constant use. It can be applied to tables of any make, for $75 per set.

Kavanagh & Decker's Factory, at the corner of Centre and Canal streets, N. Y., is the most complete of its kind in the world. The machinery is of the most improved character. The lumber drying room the largest in the United States, the material used the best that can be purchased, and the workmen thoroughly skilled.

Billiard Cloth, Balls, Cues and Trimmings, all of the best make, constantly on hand.

Kavanagh & Decker are the only agents in this country for Keene's Cement, adjudged by competent authorities to be the best Cement ever used.

Full size Tables cut down for $100.

WHOLESALE AGENCY.

THE SUBSCRIBER, late a member of this well known firm, has established a Wholesale Agency,

783 Broadway, New York City,

Opposite A. T. Stewart's Dry Goods Palace, corner Ninth street.

Where he will be pleased to receive the order of his friends and public, and especially to hear from those who have so liberally bestowed their patronage on the firm heretofore. He will supply these superior instruments to the trade, Wholesale and Retail, at the very Lowest Prices, made with the Insulated Iron Rim and Frame (cast in one solid plate.) They excel all others in durability, superiority of tone, and elegance of external appearance.

All these Pianos have overstrung Scales, giving in connection with the patent iron rim and frame, Full, Round, Powerful and Sweet Mellow Tones. The Cases are elegant in appearance and easily and safely handled.

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.

THESE Instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, further thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their power, sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its pecular fullness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equa ly delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are of the most elegant style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full rosewood corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years.

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL

FROM "THYRSIS."

A POEM BY MATTHEW ARNOLD.

[These almost perfect lines are worthy to become immortal. They rank with the "Lycidas," of Milton, the "Adonais," of Shelley, the "Hyperion," of Keats and the "Œnone," of Tennyson.]

"So some tempestuous moon in early June,
When the year's primal burst of bloom is o'er,
Before the roses and the longest day,—
When garden-walks, and all the grassy floor,
With blossoms, red and white, of fallen May,
And chestnut flowers are strewn,—
So have I heard the cuckoo's parting cry,
From the wet field, through the vexed garden-trees,
Come with the volleying rain and tossing breeze:
The bloom is gone, and with the bloom go I.

Too quick despairer, wherefore wilt thou go?
Soon will the high Midsummer pomps come on,
Soon will the musk carnations break and swell,
Soon shall we have gold-dusted snapdragon,
Sweet William with its homely cottage-smell,
And stocks in fragrant blow,
Roses that down the alleys shine afar,
And groups under the dreaming garden-trees,
And the full moon, and the white evening star.

He hearkens not! light comer, he is flown!
What matters it? next year he will return,
And we shall have him in the sweet spring-days,
With whitening hedges and unrumpling fern
And blue-bells trembling by the forest-ways,
And scent of hay new-mown.
But Thyrsis never more we swains shall see;
See him come back and cut a smoother reed,
And blow a strain the world at last shall heed—
For him, not Corydon, hath conquered thee.

I know these slopes; who knows them if not I?
But many a dingle on the loved hill-side,
With thickets, gnos stunded, old, whitethorn-studded trees,
Where thick the cowslips grew, and, far descried,
Hightowered the spikes of purple orchises,
Hath since our day put by
The coronals of that forgotten time.
Down each green bank hath gone the ploughboy's team,
And only in the hidden brook-side gleam
Primroses, orphans of the flowery prime.

Where is the girl, who by the boatman's door,
Above the rippling weir, the boating throng,
Unmoored our skiff, when through the Wytham flats,
Red loosestrife and blond meadow-sweet among,
And darting swallows and light water-flies,
We tracked the shy Thames shore?
Where are the mowers, who, as the tiny swell
Of our boat passing heaved the river grass,
Stood with suspended scythe to see us by?
They all are gone, and thou art gone as well.

Yes, thou art gone! and round me too the night
In ever-closing circle weaves her shade,
I see her veil draw soft across the day,
I feel her slowly-chilling breath invade
The cheek grown thin, the brown hair sprent with grey;
I feel her finger light
Laid pausefully upon life's heading train;
The foot less prompt to meet the morning dew,
The heart less bounding at emotion new,
And hope, once crushed, less quick to spring again.

And long the way appears, which seemed so
To the unpractised eye of sanguine youth;
And high the mountain tops, in cloud and snow,
The mountain-passes, wherein is the throne of Truth,
Tops in life's morning sun so bright and bare!
Unbreachable the fort
Of the long-battered world uplifts its wall;
And strange and vain the earthly turmoil grows,
And wise and real the charm of thy repose,
And night as welcome as a friend would fall."
